

ACCUSE SIX GREEKS.

Two Girls Say They Were Dragged Into a Store and Assaulted.

Kept Prisoners for Four Hours in Pearl Street.

The Men, Who Are Push-Cart Peddlers, Deny Their Story.

According to the story told in the Tombs Police Court this morning, two young women were the victims of horrible brutality at the hands of six Greek push-cart peddlers last night and early this morning. The young women said they were dragged from the street into a rear room of the store at 479 Pearl street at 10 o'clock last night by two men and held in durante until 2 o'clock this morning.

The young women are Jessie Smith, twenty-one years old, of 49 Monroe street, and Mamie Burke, twenty-two years old, of 55 Catherine street.

The men who were arrested gave the names of George Burke, forty; George Carab, eighteen; Louis Seeger, twenty; and John James, eighteen, and George Cimino, twenty.

They are all Greek, and live at 49 Pearl street, where the assault occurred.

About 2 o'clock this morning, the King of the Elizabeth street station, was approached by the young women, who told the story of their treatment, and the man and the peddlers, and raiding the place, captured the six men described.

In the Tombs Court, the women said they were taken away from the store, where the other four men took part in the raid.

The Greeks denied all knowledge of the assault, but held in $500 for examination. On Monday night, at 49 Monroe street, the people claim that there is no such person as Jessie Smith. They disclosed all knowledge of Smith. Mamie Burke gave her address as 55 Catherine street, but there is no such number.

Both women were sent to the House of Detention.

IS THIS GIRL A THIEF?

Silk Found in Her Trunk She Says She Picked Up.

A pretty, dark-eyed woman, named Mary Shapiro, twenty-four years old, of 18 Orchard street, was held for examination by Justice Burke in the Essex Market Police Court to-day to answer a charge of bringing stolen goods into the county. Some time ago she was employed by the Buxford Knitting Company, of Philadelphia. When she left, several hundred dollars worth of "old" silk, a clerk in the employ of the company, followed the girl to this country. Since then, she has been staying at 18 Orchard street.

He said he proposed to search her trunk.

"You dare not do it," shouted the law.

When she opened the trunk lid and found the property he alleged was stolen from the knitting works, Feldenheimer declared that the property was obtained for Mary's arrest.

The warrant for her arrest was executed the warrant yesterday Mary had disappeared. The alleged stolen goods were turned over to the Essex Market Police station, and the woman was arrested.

Feldenheimer declared he would go to Philadelphia and swear out a warrant for Mary's arrest for grand larceny.

A LOVE-SMITTEN BARBER.

Feeleppa Arrested for Annoying Miss Gardner.

Francis Feeleppa, a lovelorn barber, was arraigned in the Yorkville Police Court today on a charge of writing anonymous letters to Miss Little Gardner, of 55 West Forty-second street.

Feeleppa is a small, diminutive Italian, while Little is a tall, blonde American girl, a hair taller than her unknown suitor. His love for Little led to his arrest last night by Detective Thompson of the West Forty-second street.

Feeleppa, while at work in his shop, 407 Tenth avenue, frequently saw Little go to his shop before he knew her. He was in love with her, and was waited for hours to see her, and she was waited for him to come to her.

Feeleppa, however, had no time to follow her home, and was unable to get into her house, so he followed her, following her home, and writing love letters to her.

He had bought a "ready letter-writer," from which he copied his letters to Little. On several occasions he would leave a letter for her, and when she would receive it, she would pass the shop.

Justice Deems committed him in $500 bail for trial in the court of Special Sessions.

BRING BACK LITTLE "NINI."

It is a Pet Dog and Belongs to Dancer Sinner-Zdanoff.

Mme. Singer-Zdanoff, the dancer, is mourning the loss of a favorite pet dog, which strayed from her 115 Second avenue last evening.

"Nini" is the name to which the pup answers, and is of the small, black-faced, curly-haired, long-eared dogs broken over the heart of her betrothed. She says she is willing to give almost anything to the person who will bring Nini back to her.

WAS IT A SPITEFUL TRICK?

A Pretty Saleswoman Has a Disgraced Visitor in Court.

Mrs. Jennie Brandon, nineteen years old, a good-looking saleswoman in the millinery department of a great Harlem store, was compelled in the Harlem Police Court this morning against J. P. Sauls, of 20 West One Hundred and First street. Sauls is a salesman for a wholesale millinery house, and his brother, Chester E. Sauls, is a real estate dealer at 162 Broadway.

His brother had been a visitor at Miss Brandon's home, and retold merchant, died today at his home, Bleeker, N. Y., aged seventeen. Mrs. Sauls was a radical feminist who was one of the leaders in a crusade of the women's rights cause in this city against the Democratic ticket in Graveston.

Feeleppa, while at work in his shop, 407 Tenth avenue, frequently saw Little go to his shop before he knew her. He was in love with her, and was waited for hours to see her, and she was waited for him to come to her.

Feeleppa, however, had no time to follow her home, and was unable to get into her house, so he followed her, following her home, and writing love letters to her.

He had bought a "ready letter-writer," from which he copied his letters to Little. On several occasions he would leave a letter for her, and when she would receive it, she would pass the shop.

Justice Deems committed him in $500 bail for trial in the court of Special Sessions.

$10,000 Fine in Wisconsin.

Harris Karatzky was arrested and locked up in Ludow Street jail today, on an order issued by Justice McRae in the City Court, in a suit against Sarah Vermauer, for $10,000 for breach of promise.

Indian Fighter Peacefully Married.

Gur Butler, the cowboy and Indian fighter, was married Thursday evening to Miss Violet, who is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. May, of the Virgin Philip Daly, Jr., and his wife were the only witness.

Mrs. Clayton Was Held.

Mrs. Clayton, the stylish dressed woman of

THE WORLD: SATURDAY

JAN. 12, 1895.

WHAT IT COSTS TO DRESS. JUSTICE BARRETT LECTURED.

Shell Pink Bengaline Gowns Cheap When Not Paid For.

Mr. and Mrs. Thompson Settle Their Differences Amicably.

A case of too much mother-in-law, a separation of husband and wife, and a habeas corpus proceeding in the Supreme Court, were all compromised, and a resolution effected to-day in the private office of James J. Nealis, the official stenographer of the Supreme Court.

George L. Thompson, a pretty young married woman, whose mother is the owner of two large flat-houses in Fifty-eighth street, left New York bound for Hempstead, L. I., taking with her their two-year-old baby boy.

Mr. Thompson fully explained that the trouble in his family was the result of a misunderstanding with his mother-in-law. On Dec. 17 he obtained a writ of habeas corpus to have the child photographed. Nealis was appointed by the Court to take testimony in the case.

Mr. and Mrs. Thompson appeared for the hearing, and the court adjourned.

John M. Nealis advised them to kiss and make up. He postponed the examination for the day, and which are the basis of the claim for which judgment has been sealed.

Lawyer Todd Says Bluntly that He Was Unfairly Treated.

Mrs. Mignon C. Barnard Lets $2,000 Bill Go to Judgement.

Mrs. Mignon C. Barnard, the dashing wife of "Jack" Barnard, well known in society, and a son of Judge Barnard, has not paid her bills for gowns and other feminine finery, and there is a sum of $2,500 against her.

The decree was obtained in the Supreme Court by White, Howard & Co., fashionable dressmakers of the Fifty-fourth street and Madison avenue. They say that Mrs. Barnard has owed them this little bill since February, 1893. Here is a list of the articles she ordered in one day, and which are the basis of the claim for which judgment has been sealed:

White, silk waist ... $125

Brown Turkish waist ... $125

Black velvet waist ... $125

Blue silk crepe tea gown ... $125

Blue crepe waist ... $125

Marie bengaline dress with pearls ... $125

Short velvet gown, trimmed with blue stripes ... $125

Blue striped dress and jacket ... $125

Red velvet ... $125

Red silk ... $1